

PRESS RELEASE

July 21, 2006

CORPORATION PLEADS GUILTY TO PAYING KICKBACKS TO KODAK EMPLOYEES

RE: United States v. Pro-Mold, Inc.

United States Attorney Terrance P. Flynn announced today that Pro-Mold, Inc., a New York Corporation located at 350 Buell Road, Rochester, New York, has pleaded guilty in front of United States District Court Judge David G. Larimer to a felony information charging a scheme to defraud Eastman Kodak Company by use of the United States mails, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1341, which carries a maximum sentence of 5 years imprisonment and/or $250,000 fine.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Richard A. Resnick, who is handling the case, stated that Roy Mosely was employed at Kodak in Rochester, New York, as a mechanic until early 2005. While working at Kodak, Mosely was introduced by another Kodak employee, Roger Benton, to Pro-Mold, Inc., which provided molding services to Kodak. During the years 1997 through 2000, Mosely would hire Pro-Mold, Inc., to provide services to Kodak. Pro-Mold, Inc., would then first submit a bid to Kodak. Mosely and Pro-Mold, Inc., would then increase the bid so that Pro-Mold, Inc., would receive an inflated amount from Kodak. The inflated amount represented the amount to be kickbacked to Mosely and Benton, minus the taxes paid on such amount by Pro-Mold, Inc.

During the years 1997 through 2000, the inflated contracts awarded to Pro-Mold, Inc., resulted in a total loss to Kodak of $189,174.

Benton pled guilty to mail fraud on June 22, 2006. Mosely pled guilty to mail fraud on July 14, 2006.

The conviction was the culmination of a joint investigation on the part of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, under the direction of Laurie J. Bennett , Special Agent in Charge, and the United States Postal Inspection Service, under the direction of Ronald C. Walker, Inspector In Charge, New York Division.

Sentencing for Mosely is scheduled for September 19, 2006, at 2:30 p.m.
Sentencing for Benton is scheduled for September 19, 2006, at 2:00 p.m. Sentencing for Pro-Mold, Inc., is scheduled for September 26, 2006 at 10:30 a.m.